Principal's Memo

Hello St. Paul Families,

The start of a new month is upon us! Time is certainly moving quickly. October is shaping up to be an interesting month here at St. Paul and we look forward to many experiences and events. The weather might be getting cooler, but things are heating up for the lightning.

A heartfelt thank you to all the parents who came out for the first parent council meeting of the year. There was a lot great conversation and sharing of ideas.

Principal's Memo

Next week is READ IN Week. We have a lot of activities planned to celebrate the gift of literacy and the impacts that has on our lives. Be on the look out for many guest readers, including some local celebrities!

Monday is also World Teachers' Day, and we give praise and thanks to the wonderful teachers here at St. Paul who serve selflessly to educate your children.

Ride the lightning!

God Bless.
